

School Crisis
Preparedness - Is
Your School
READY???

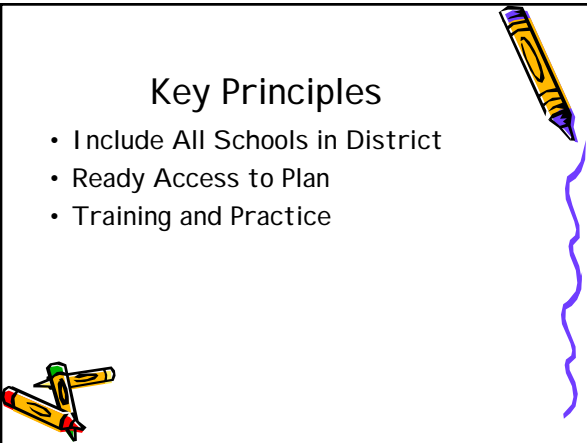

Key Principles

- Leadership
- Collaboration
- Proactive vs. Reactive - Living Document
- Outside Resources
- Common Vocabulary
- Meet Individual School Needs
- Needs of Children and Staff

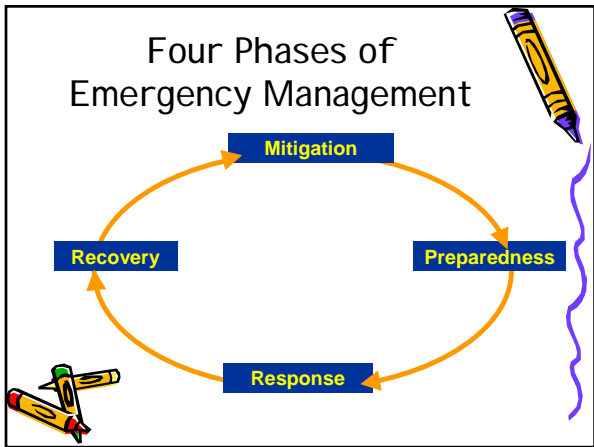

Key Principles

- Include All Schools in District
- Ready Access to Plan
- Training and Practice

Strong Link with 911 Responders

Education and Training

The Gift of Intuition

Emergency Preparedness Planning Templates

- Electronic emergency plan templates
- NIMS Compliant including ICS
- Mitigation, Planning, Response and Recovery
- Policies to lead school employees and administrators
- Survey and feedback forms for staff, students and parents
- Tabletop exercises and drills
- Flip chart templates

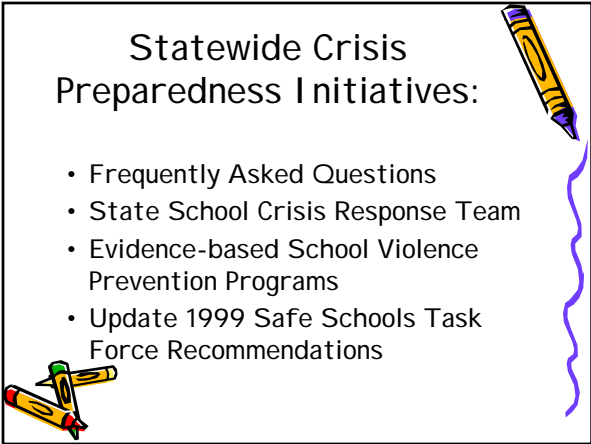

School Crisis Preparedness Web Series

- Safe Schools: United We Stand - December
- Safe Schools: Bullying/Cyber-bullying - January
- Safe Schools: Creating A Positive Climate - February
- Safe Schools: NIMS - March
- Safe Schools: CPTED - April
- Safe Schools: READY - May
- Safe Schools: Violence Prevention - June 19
- Archived at <http://media2.wi.gov/dpi/catalog/> - Student Services Prevention and Wellness
- Topics suggestions accepted!

Statewide Crisis Preparedness Initiatives:

- Frequently Asked Questions
- State School Crisis Response Team
- Evidence-based School Violence Prevention Programs
- Update 1999 Safe Schools Task Force Recommendations

Responding to Emergencies
And Disasters with Youth
(READY):

Includes:
5-day READY Camp
3-day READY Class for middle school
2-day READY Class for high school
Elementary Class in development
READY Olympics - September 2007

Overall Goals of READY Initiatives:

- Increase volunteer efforts of students
- Encourage students to take leadership in community efforts of prevention
- Educate students to respond to emergency and disaster situations at their home and school
- Increase interest in health and public safety careers
- Empower youth with personal responsibility
- Encourage team building
- Develop leadership skills to affect change through higher education after graduation from high school

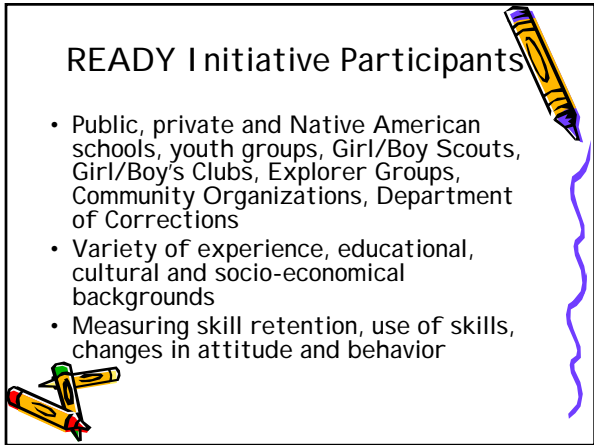

Partnering Organizations

- OJA, Citizen Corps and Department of Homeland Security
- Wisconsin Technical College System Foundation
- Department of Military Affairs, Air and Army National Guard
- UW La Crosse
- UW Madison Hospital and Police
- Emergency Management
- Oregon, Mc Farland, Madison and Milwaukee Fire Departments
- Fitch-Rona EMS
- KEYS Program - Meriter Hospital
- American Red Cross
- Wisconsin Poison Center
- Project ADAM - Children's Hospital of Wisconsin
- Many dedicated individuals!

READY Initiative Participants

- Public, private and Native American schools, youth groups, Girl/Boy Scouts, Girl/Boy's Clubs, Explorer Groups, Community Organizations, Department of Corrections
- Variety of experience, educational, cultural and socio-economical backgrounds
- Measuring skill retention, use of skills, changes in attitude and behavior

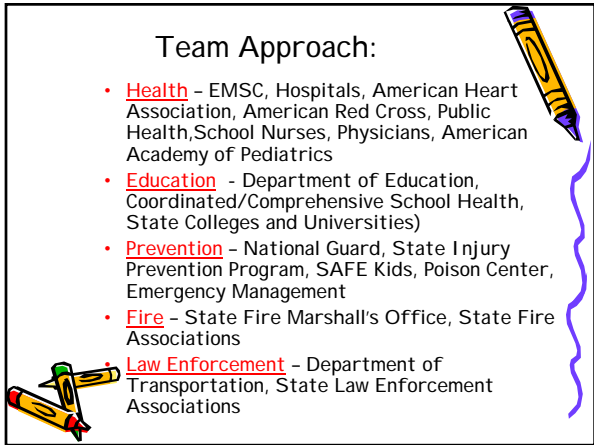

School Emergency Response Team (SERT) Recognition

READY and SERT
VIDEO

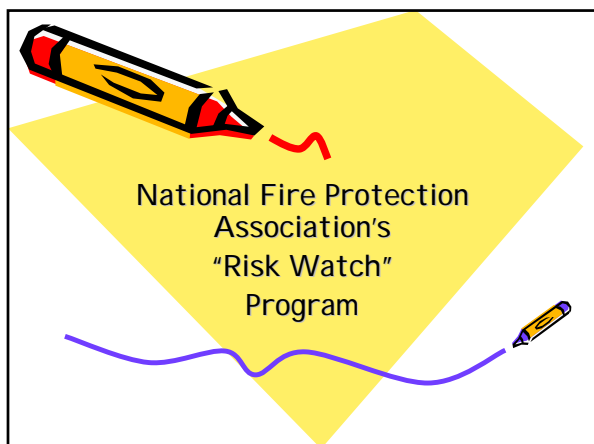

Team Approach:

- Health - EMSC, Hospitals, American Heart Association, American Red Cross, Public Health, School Nurses, Physicians, American Academy of Pediatrics
- Education - Department of Education, Coordinated/Comprehensive School Health, State Colleges and Universities)
- Prevention - National Guard, State Injury Prevention Program, SAFE Kids, Poison Center, Emergency Management
- Fire - State Fire Marshall's Office, State Fire Associations
- Law Enforcement - Department of Transportation, State Law Enforcement Associations

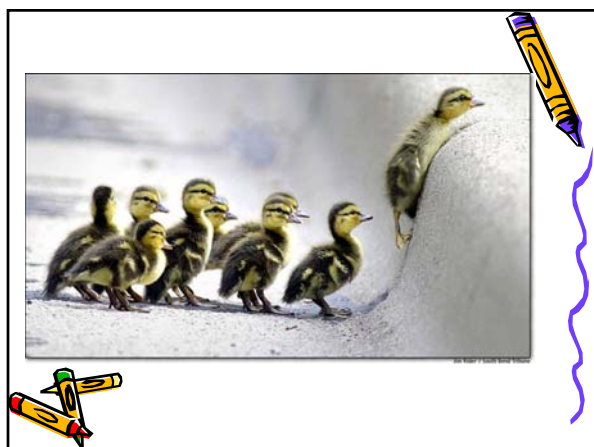

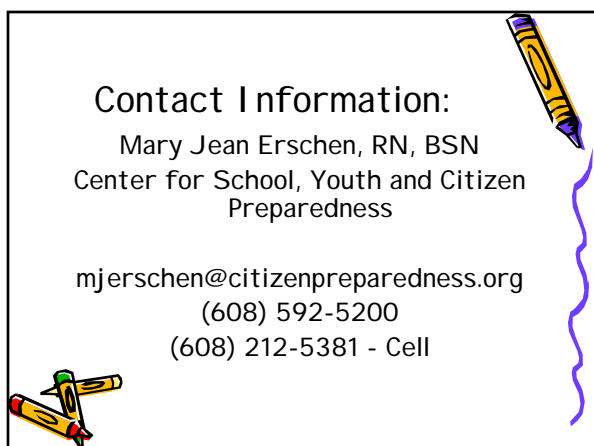

Comprehensive
School Health

- Meet Health Education Standards
- Create healthy, resilient lifelong learners
- Promote Service Learning
- Integrate into various curriculum - Health, Arts, Science, Language, Social Studies, Math, Technology, etc.
- Create community connections - Fire, EMS, Law Enforcement, Public safety, Emergency Management, National Guard, Health and Prevention Resources
- Parent/Family Education

National Fire Protection
Association's
"Risk Watch"
Program

Contact Information:
Mary Jean Erschen, RN, BSN
Center for School, Youth and Citizen
Preparedness

mjerschen@citizenpreparedness.org
(608) 592-5200
(608) 212-5381 - Cell

Raising our children...
Community effort!

You Can Make A Difference!