

Greater Brighton Fire Protection District
Training Division
425 S. Main Street • Brighton, Colorado 80601
(303) 659-4101 ext. 240

“DO WE NEED TO DO THAT EVERY TIME?”

A Back to Basics Approach to Fireground Operations in the 21st Century

Presented by:
David M. McGrail
District Chief
Denver Fire Department

June 21 and 22, 2008
0900 to 1700

(Same class is presented both days to cover multiple shifts)

Brighton Collegiate High School
3551 Southern Street
Brighton, CO 80601

Cost: $50.00
Lunch Included
(provided by Brighton Professional Fire Fighters)

This seminar is a fireground strategy & tactics presentation with an emphasis on developing and maintaining a strong firefighting mind-set. That is, a very keen mind-set, with a strong dedication to physical and mental preparation, and the application of “good habits” at every incident, every time. These are the keys to firefighter safety and survival on the fireground, and overall operational success.

For Registration Information:
Christopher Woolley
303-659-4101 ext. 240
cwoolley@gbfpd.org